Visions of England Paul Dave,2006-03-01 Visions of England is a provocative and original exploration of Englishness in particular English class in contemporary cinema Class has been a central part whether consciously or not of much of English social analysis and artistic production for over a century But as a way of interpreting society class has found itself sidelined in a postmodern world Visions of England presents a detailed analysis of the changing landscape of English class and culture Visions of England explores a wide range of film production from gangster thrillers like Lock Stock Two Smoking Barrels to the period cinema of Elizabeth from cult classics like Performance and Trainspotting to the mainstream romantic comedy of Notting Hill and Bridget Jones from the social realist drama of Billy Elliot and The Full Monty to the multicultural comedy of Bend it like Beckham and the experimentalism of films such as London Orbital and Robinson in Space An extraordinarily wide ranging and incisive study Visions of England rewrites the relationship of film and Englishness

Studying the British Crime Film Paul Elliott,2014-10-01 Ever since its inception British cinema has been obsessed with crime and the criminal One of the first narrative films to be produced in Britain the Hepworth s 1905 short Rescued by Rover was a fast paced quick edited tale of abduction and kidnap and the first British sound film Alfred Hitchcock s Blackmail 1930 centered on murder and criminal guilt For a genre seemingly so important to the British cinematic character there is little direct theoretical or historical work focused on it The Britain of British cinema is often written about in terms of national history ethnic diversity or cultural tradition yet very rarely in terms of its criminal tendencies and dark underbelly This volume assumes that to know how British cinema truly works it is necessary to pull back the veneer of the costume piece the historical drama and the rom com and glimpse at what is underneath For every Brief Encounter 1945 there is a Brighton Rock 2010 for every Notting Hill 1999 there is a Long Good Friday 1980

Contemporary British Horror Cinema Walker Johnny Walker,2015-10-01 Combining industrial research and primary interview material with detailed textual analysis Contemporary British Horror Cinema looks beyond the dominant paradigms which have explained away British horror in the past and sheds light on one of the most dynamic and distinctive yet scarcely talked about areas of contemporary British film production Considering high profile theatrical releases including The Descent Shaun of the Dead and The Woman in Black as well as more obscure films such as The Devil s Chair Resurrecting the Street Walker and Cherry Tree Lane Contemporary British Horror Cinema provides a thorough examination of British horror film production in the twenty first century
